| Re: | State Legislative Report |
| | |

Legislature:

The Legislature returns from the Spring Recess on April 5th and begins one of the three busiest times of the year. (The other two being the budget deadline and the end of session.) Bill authors who have been slow to set their bills now have to meet the policy committee deadline of Friday, April 30th to keep their bills alive, but not all committees meet every week and authors may be forced to accept whatever hearing date they get. Keep in mind that bills do not really die in the first year of the two-year legislative session, they simply become "two-year bills" and they get another chance next January to continue moving.

Below are three bills where staff is not suggesting that the JPA take a position, but feels they should be brought to the attention of the board just by way of information on significant legislative matters:

AB 1195 (C. Garcia)--This bill would create the Southern Los Angeles County Regional Water Agency for cities and unincorporated communities within the Central Basin and West Coast Basin aquifers, and have the same jurisdiction boundaries as the Water Replenishment District of Southern California. The bill is attracting significant attention because it would grant the new agency all necessary powers to operate a retail water agency, as well as broad powers to consolidate water districts "as directed by the State Water Resources Control Board." The bill has not been set for a hearing. The affected cities and the Central Basin Municipal Water District are discussing amendments with the author at this time and have yet to take positions on the bill, at least as far as BB&K staff has been informed. Likewise, MWD has not adopted a formal position.

SB 480 (Stern)-- This bill would amend the Metropolitan Water District Act, which always demands attention. It would require the MWD Board to adopt, by rule, a code of conduct prohibiting inappropriate conduct as defined by the bill. The merits are self explanatory, but it is uncommon for a statute to require a public agency to formally adopt a rule such as this. The bill is not set for a hearing at this time and it will not likely receive significant attention. Staff is reporting on the bill simply because it would be remiss in its duties to not mention a bill that amends the MWD Act.

AB 1296 (Kamlager)-- This bill would give the Assembly and Senate one additional appointee to the SCAQMD board. The purpose of the bill is certainly laudable in that it seeks to give greater representation to disadvantaged and underrepresented communities. The noteworthy issue, however, is the math behind how it achieves this goal. The current board consists of 13 members with the Governor, the Assembly, and the Senate each having one appointee. The others are drawn from local government. That results in 23% of the board coming from state political appointments. This bill would make SCAQMD a 15 member board with 5 state political appointees, or 33%. Giving a greater voice to underrepresented communities requires no justification, but accomplishing that goal by expanding the influence of state government over SCAQMD seems to call out for an explanation.

Newsom Recall:

The proponents of the recall have very likely turned in a sufficient number of signatures to trigger a recall. Once validated, a complicated process begins where there is ample room for political manoeuvring. The two main wildcards are when the election is set and who signs on to challenge Newsom. Secretary of State Shirley Weber, who was just appointed by Newsome, has significant power to determine when the election will take place and, far more importantly, how long challengers have to file and conduct a statewide campaign. Worse for the proponents, Newsom's poll numbers are rising as the pandemic restrictions ease and California moves into the lead pack of state vaccination rates. According to a recent PPIC poll, 56% of voters would oppose the recall if the election were held today.

Miscellaneous:

Not falling into any particular category but critical to staying informed on matters of interest to the Legislature is redistricting, and nobody seems to be saying much about it. Part of the reason is that the necessary census data will not be available in time for the state's Redistricting Commission to meet its August 15th deadline due to delays caused by the pandemic. A legal ruling has given the Commission until December to draw new maps. Setting deadlines aside, the process itself is one of the most significant political events in California. (Note the period.) Supposedly, politics were taken out of the process back in 2008 when voters established an independent commission to draw political boundaries. In 2011, the Republican Caucus Chair in power at the time believed it would be inappropriate to interfere in the process and Republican operatives were largely sidelined. Democrat operatives, by contrast, shifted into overdrive and the results were devastating for Republicans. That process is about to restart.

GOV. | Current law authorizes any party to protest the imposition of a fee, dedication, reservation, or other exactions imposed on a development project within 90 or 120 days of the imposition of the fee, as applicable, and specifies procedures for those protests and actions. The Mitigation Fee Act imposes the same requirements on a local agency for a new or increased fee for public facilities. Current law, for specified fees, requires any judicial action or proceeding to attack, review, set aside, void, or annul an ordinance, resolution, or motion adopting a new fee or service charge or modifying an existing fee or service charge to be commenced within 120 days of the effective date of the ordinance, resolution, or motion. Current law also provides that, if an ordinance, resolution, or motion provides for an automatic adjustment in a fee or service charge and the adjustment results in an increase in the fee or service charge, that any action to attack, review, set aside, void, or annul the increase to be commenced within 120 days of the increase. This bill would increase, for fees and service charges and for fees for specified public facilities, the time for mailing the notice of the time and place of the meeting to at least 45 days before the meeting. | | |
