Effective January 1, 2024, all salary ranges and related incumbents' rates of pay will be increased by the October 2022 to October 2023 All Urban Consumer Price Index for Los Angeles-Long Beach-Anaheim California with a minimum of a 1.5% increase and a maximum of a 4% increase.

ARTICLE 7, MOVEMENT ON THE SALARY SCHEDULE

- A. Individual movement of employees within established pay range shall be based on performance and upon recommendation of each employee's supervisory line, and shall not be automatic.
- B. Employees shall generally be evaluated annually on their anniversary date except for newly promoted or hired employees as per Article 9, Salary Administration of this Agreement. Employees may be evaluated at any time by their supervisor.

ARTICLE 8, DEFERRED COMPENSATION PLAN

- A. Employees may elect to participate in the District's Deferred Compensation Plan.
- B. Participation in deferred compensation commences the month following sign-up for new employees.
- C. Employees are eligible to have 3% of their base salary matched per pay period on a $1 to $1 basis.
- D. The District established and maintains a pension a pension plan pursuant to the provisions of Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Each employee covered has agreed to contribute three percent (3%) of his or her monthly salary into the employee's 457 (b) plan account and the District will contribute three percent (3%) into the employee's 401 (a) plan account. This contribution will not reduce the employee's compensation for the purpose of calculating merit increases or any other payments which are based on the employee's base rate of pay.

Employees are provided a one-time option to contribute to the plan. Employees employed on or before January 1, 2016 were given a one-time option to opt out effective January 1, 2016. New or promoted employees, upon initial eligibility for enrollment into the plan, will have the one-time option to opt out for the lifetime of the plan. Employees who exercised their right to opt out do not have the option to opt back in during the lifetime of the plan. The enrollment status of the participant (active contributor or opt-out non-participant) will remain in effect for the lifetime of the plan.

- E. For employees newly promoted or hired to positions at a date other than January 1, the District payment per calendar year shall be pro-rated for partial year employment.

ARTICLE 9, SALARY ADMINISTRATION

- A. Classifications shall be assigned to a salary range consisting of a minimum and a maximum amount of compensation for that range.

- B. Newly Hired Employee

1. A newly hired employee shall be compensated commensurate with his/her experience, skills, ability, and education. An exceptional candidate hired above the midrange of the salary range must have the approval of the General Manager.
2. A new employee shall be eligible for a merit performance review upon six months of employment and at one year of employment. The merit increase shall follow the guidelines below taking into account the quartile the employee is hired at and the overall performance rating:

	SALARY QUARTILES
	0-25%	26-50%	51-75%	75% - Control Point
	1	2	3	4
Performance Rating
Proficient	7%	6%	5%	4%
Highly Effective	8%	7%	6%	5%
Superior	Increase may be above guideline at manager discretion

After the first full year, the employee shall be reviewed for merit each anniversary date. For 2022 only, employees with an anniversary date from January 1 to July 1, will have their merit increase prorated on a 1/12 basis so that the employee shall not be provided with a larger increase than they would be entitled to on the July 1 review cycle. Example: An employee with an anniversary date on April 1, 2022 received an annual merit review on July 1, 2021 and will receive their next merit review effective April 1, 2022. The employee will be eligible for a merit increase adjustment equal to 9/12 of the last increase. If the last increase was 5%, then the increase will be 3.74%. The employee’s next merit review will be effective April 1, 2023. This will result in an equivalent annual salary.

For 2022 only, employees with an anniversary date from July 1 to December 31 will receive an annual merit review on July 1, 2022 and again on their anniversary date. The merit increase associated with their 2022 anniversary date shall be prorated on a 1/12 basis so that the employee shall not exceed 12 months without a merit review. Example: An employee with an anniversary date on October 1 received an annual merit review on July 1, 2021 and will receive their next merit review on July 1, 2022. On their anniversary date on October 1, 2022, the employee will be eligible for a merit increase adjustment equal to 3/12 of the last increase. If the last increase was 5%, then the increase will be 1.25%. Thereafter, the employee will be on an anniversary date review cycle. This will result in an equivalent annual salary.

3. In no event shall any merit increase exceed the control point for the classification.

C. Newly Promoted Employee

1. A newly promoted employee shall generally receive a 5% increase or the minimum of the classification, but cannot exceed the control point of the higher classification.
2. A newly promoted employee shall be eligible for a merit performance review after six months and after one year in the new position. The guidelines for merit performance increases in B-2 shall apply to newly promoted employees.

D. Merit Increase Not Granted

When a merit increase is not granted due to the employee not meeting performance expectations, the supervisor shall set a date for a special review outlining performance improvements that must be achieved. If the special review is at a minimum considered to be overall proficient, the supervisor may grant a merit increase but it shall not be retroactive.

E. Salary for Out of Class Assignment

1. When, in the determination of the Department Director and with the approval of the General Manager, it is necessary to specifically assign to an employee in writing all of the significant duties of a higher classification for at least four (4) workweeks in a three month period, the employee so assigned shall be compensated at the minimum rate established for the higher classification or 5% above the employee's regular base rate of pay, whichever is greater, with such out-of-class assignment pay effective upon the date of the change of assignment. For purposes of this Article, the out-of-class workweek shall begin on the day the employee begins the duties of the higher classification, as specified in the written assignment. At the time an employee returns to his/her regular position, his/her salary should reflect the same salary rate he/she had previously, with any merit or salary adjustments added as appropriate. At any time during the out-of-class appointment, an employee may be reassigned from that appointment without the right of appeal or hearing.
2. An employee performing in an approved out of class assignment will be entitled to pro-rated benefits, when applicable.

F. Priority of Increases

When more than one personnel action involving changes in an employee's salary status becomes effective on the same day, all changes shall be in accordance with the provisions of the preceding sections of this article, and shall take place in the following order of precedence: 1) merit increase 2) promotion, demotion, or reclassification 3) adjustment to salary range.

The seriousness of the offense and prior discipline or corrective actions will be considered in determining the level of disciplinary action required.

Generally, the following sequence will be followed in the process of correcting performance or conduct. It is highly recommended that the Human Resources Manager be consulted prior to initiating any disciplinary actions.

A. Supervisor Conference

1. The supervisor will confer with the employee about the areas needing improvement and reach a clear understanding of expectations, which will be reduced to writing, to bring the performance or conduct to acceptable standards. Depending on the seriousness of the employee's substandard performance or conduct, the supervisor may document the discussion in writing.
2. In some cases, especially if counseling fails to result in marked improvement, the supervisor may initiate a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP). The PIP will include 1) a description of the areas in which the employee is not meeting expectations, 2) a description of what the employee must do to meet performance expectations, 3) the time period (generally no more than 90 days) to attain the expected performance expectations, and 4) a statement of the consequences of failing to bring the performance expectations to acceptable level. Both the supervisor and the employee must sign the PIP.

B. Reprimands

1. In the event the supervisor's counseling, warning, or PIP does not result in improvement of performance to acceptable levels, the supervisor may prepare a written reprimand. The written reprimand will put the employee on notice that failure to correct performance or conduct may result in more serious disciplinary actions, up to and including termination.
2. Notwithstanding the above, a reprimand may be issued to an employee without prior counseling or warning depending on the seriousness of the offense, performance, or conduct.
3. An employee has the right to respond in writing and have the response attached to the reprimand as part of the personnel file.

C. Severe Disciplinary Actions

1. Severe disciplinary actions are defined as demotion/transfer, suspension without pay, or termination.
2. The District may impose disciplinary actions on a case by case basis when warnings, reprimands, or other corrective actions have failed to improve expected standards of performance or conduct, or when the offense, conduct or violation is deemed to be severe and warrants discipline up to and including termination. The severity of the disciplinary action will consider the employee's previous history of performance, conduct and disciplinary actions.
3. The employee may appeal the proposed disciplinary action to the General Manager within seven calendar days. The General Manager will schedule a meeting with the employee within seven calendar days of receiving notice of the appeal. The General Manager will render a written decision within seven calendar days of the meeting.
4. The employee may appeal the General Manager's final decision to the Board of Directors by giving written notice to the General Manager within seven calendar days of receipt of the General Manager's written decision. The Board will consider the appeal at a regularly scheduled meeting within a reasonable period of time. The decision of the Board is final.

D. At Will

The forgoing does not apply to the at will status for new employees to this bargaining Unit or to those employees who have a change in classification as of July 1, 2010 as defined in Article 29, At Will Employees.

ARTICLE 24, GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

A grievance is a claim by one or more persons of a violation, misinterpretation or inequitable application of the rules and regulations or memorandum of understanding applicable to the employees. A dispute over the terms of the Agreement or a dispute concerning a performance evaluation shall not constitute a grievance.

A. Processing the Grievance -- Step No. 1
Informal Discussion with Supervisor:

1. The grievance shall first be discussed on an informal basis by the aggrieved with his/her immediate Supervisor within 7 calendar days from the date of the action causing the grievance. Every effort shall be made to resolve the grievance between the employee and his/her immediate Supervisor.

B. Processing the Grievance -- Step No. 2
Formal by Supervisor:

1. In the event the employee believes the grievance has not been satisfactorily resolved, the employee shall submit the grievance in writing to the Supervisor within 7 calendar days after the informal discussion in Step 1.
2. The Supervisor shall give his/her written decision within 7 calendar days after receiving the written grievance.

C. Processing the Grievance -- Step No. 3
Review by General Manager:

1. If the grievance has not been satisfactorily resolved by the Supervisor the grievance may be submitted to the General Manager within 7 calendar days. Within 7 calendar days after receiving the written grievance, the General Manager shall schedule a meeting with all parties concerned, and they shall thoroughly discuss the grievance.
2. The General Manager shall give his written decision within 7 calendar days. If the aggrieved feels that the decision of the General Manager is unjust, a final appeal may be made to the Board of Directors within 7 calendar days. The decision of the board is final.

D. The employee at any step of the grievance procedure may represent himself/herself, may be represented by a fellow employee, attorney, or any other person he/she may choose. Employee representatives must take pre-approved time off.

E. The time limitations are designed to quickly settle a grievance. Time limitations may be extended by agreement of both parties in writing. If at any stage of the grievance procedure the employee is dissatisfied with the decision rendered, it shall be the grievant's responsibility to submit the grievance to the next designated level of review within the time limits specified. Failure to submit the grievance within the time limits imposed shall terminate the grievance process and the grievance shall be considered resolved. The grievant shall promptly proceed to the next step if the immediate Supervisor or General Manager fails to respond within the time limits specified, unless prior mutually agreeable arrangements are made.

ARTICLE 25, LAYOFFS

In the event the work load of the District decreases to the point where lay-off of otherwise satisfactory employees is required, lay-offs within each classification will be determined by the General Manager on the basis of merit, as determined by his/her performance reports for his/her current classification, and will be subject to two weeks' notice or severance pay, at the discretion of the employee. For 24 months employees so laid off will be called to resume work prior to District recruiting to fill jobs created by an increase in the District's workload for the classification in question.

ARTICLE 26, PEACEFUL PERFORMANCE

- A. The parties recognize and acknowledge that many of the services performed by the employees covered by this Agreement are essential to the public health, safety and general welfare of the residents within the District service area.
- B. Consequently, the Association agrees that under no circumstances will it recommend, encourage, cause or permit its members to initiate, participate in, nor will any member of the bargaining Unit take part in, any strike, sit-down, stay-in, slow-down or picketing (hereinafter collectively referred to as work-stoppage), in any office, or facility of the District, not to curtail any work or restrict any production, or interfere with any operation of the District during any period in which an Agreement is in effect, or during any period in which an expired Agreement has remained in effect while the parties negotiate a successor Agreement.
- C. In the event of any such work-stoppage by any member of the Unit the District shall not be required to negotiate on the merits of any dispute which may have given rise to such work-stoppage until said work-stoppage has ceased.
- D. In the event of any such work-stoppage during the term of this Agreement, whether by, the Association or by any member of the Unit, the Association, by its officers, shall immediately declare in writing and publicize that such work-stoppage is contrary to the Agreement and unauthorized and further direct its members in writing to cease the said conduct and to resume work. Copies of such written notice shall be served upon the District.
- E. If in the event of a work-stoppage, the Association promptly and in good faith performs the obligations of this Section, and, providing, the Association has not otherwise authorized, permitted or encouraged such work-stoppage, the Association shall not be liable for any damages caused by the violation of this Section.
- F. However, the District shall have the right to discipline, subject to due process*, including discharge, any employee who instigates, participates in, or gives leadership to, work-stoppage activity herein prohibited.
- G. The District and the Association shall have the right to seek full legal redress.

*Employees not deemed At Will

The Department Director may approve occasional or regular partial or full day telecommuting schedules that meet the operational needs and policies of the District, up to two (2) partial or full days per week. Telecommuting is subject to the terms and conditions of the District Telecommuting Policy.

ARTICLE 29, SEPARATION FROM THE DISTRICT

- A. An employee resigning or leaving work without two weeks' notice will be considered discharged insofar as the application of these rules and regulations is concerned.

- C. An employee separating from the District in good standing is expected to refrain from using paid time off during the final two weeks of his or her tenure with the District.

ARTICLE 30, AT-WILL EMPLOYEES

Unit Employees hired after July 1, 2010 or who transfer to a new classification within this Unit will be designated as AT WILL EMPLOYEES.

ARTICLE 31, FULL UNDERSTANDING, MODIFICATION AND WAIVER

Management will continue to administer the formal and informal terms and conditions of employment in a reasonable manner.

- B. Therefore, this Agreement represents the only Agreement of the parties which may provide for changes in terms and conditions of employment as a result of negotiations and/or actual adoption and implementation of the provisions of this Agreement.
- C. During the term of this Agreement, neither the District nor the Association shall be obligated to Meet and Confer on any matter:
 - 1. Whether or not specifically referred to in this Agreement;

2. Whether or not the matter was within the knowledge or contemplation of either party at the time of negotiations;
 3. Whether or not the matters were proposed and later withdrawn during negotiations.
- D. No change to this Agreement will be binding upon either party unless made in writing and signed by the parties
- E. The waiver of appeal of any breach of any term or condition of this Agreement by either party shall not constitute a precedent or in any way bar the future enforcement of all contractual terms and provisions.

ARTICLE 32, DISTRICT RIGHTS

It is the exclusive right of the District to determine the mission of each of its constituent departments, board, and commissions, set standards of services to be offered to the public, and exercise control and discretion over its organization and operations. It is also the exclusive right of the District to direct its employees and evaluate their work performance, take disciplinary action for cause, relieve its employees from duty because of lack of work or for cause, and determine the methods, means and personnel by which the District's operations are to be conducted; provided, however, that the exercise of such rights does not preclude employees or their representatives from conferring or raising grievances about the practical consequences that decisions on these matters may have on wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment.

ARTICLE 33, EMPLOYEE RIGHTS

Employees of the District shall have the right to form, join, and participate in the activities of employee organizations of their own choosing for the purpose of representation on all matters of employee relations.
